

Give your Sheridan College Student the Gift of Culture & Healthy, Fantastic Food!

The Brinton Museum, in Big Horn, Wyoming, is a world-class treasure housing fantastic examples of American Western Art and the best-preserved Plains Indians Artifacts in North America. Set on the historic Quarter Circle A Ranch, The Brinton is a tranquil setting at the base of the Bighorn Mountains and features a preserved 1920's gentleman's ranch house, manicured gardens, and outbuildings.

We know most young adults likely won't take advantage of something "boring" like visiting a museum, even if it is free, so we are offering you some parental encouragement. The Brinton Bistro is open for lunch from 11a—2p, Wednesday through Saturday and for Brunch on Sunday, 9:30a—1p. What better cultural encouragement than food?

We are offering a College Culture & Cuisine Package that includes Museum Admission and Lunch at The Brinton Bistro of any Entrée, Dessert, and Tea, Coffee, or Soda (or the Sunday Brunch Buffet) at the discounted rate of $20 per student. This is a savings of $12!

Encourage your College student to take in some Wyoming history, some Western art, and Plains Indians culture at a beautiful, local setting all while partaking in a fresh, healthy meal. Go to: thebrintonmuseum.org/visit/brinton-bistro/ to purchase.
